

CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

WITH

Customer, _____

As of _____

for Boyd Company to furnish, on consignment, parts on the attached list.

This consignment will be physically located at

The consigned parts will be stored in a suitable area that keeps the inventory protected from possible damage and will remain the property of Whayne Supply Company and/or Walker Machinery until they are put to use.

For the benefit of both parties, Boyd Company reserves the right to adjust and/or delete quantities or parts on the list as needed according to the demand or usage.

Boyd Company representatives will be allowed unrestricted access to this consignment inventory on at least weekly to monthly basis. This is necessary to inventory the consignment for reordering, stocking, and billing of consumed parts.

The customer is responsible and will be invoiced for all consignment inventory damaged while in customers' care, custody, or control or any inventory shortage, whether explained or unexplained, disclosed during an inventory of the consignment.

This consignment agreement can be canceled at anytime by either party with two weeks written notice.
