Pre-trip preparatory activities:

Letters have been sent home with students informing parents about starting a Beta Club at OKHMS and the opportunity for Beta members to compete at the Kentucky Junior Beta Convention in Louisville. Beta sponsors have met and will continue to meet with Beta members interested in attending the convention to best select the areas of competition that matches each student's strengths. Sponsors will also collaborate with teachers to better assess the appropriate areas each student should compete in as well as work with the parent and student.

Post-trip activities:

Being that the club has recently started at OKHMS, we currently only have seventeen members. The National Beta Club provides its members the opportunity to be challenged as leaders in the school as well as in the community. It also provides members the ability to work toward college scholarships. Beta members attending the convention will have the opportunity to share their experiences with other Betas and serve as recruiters for future members in the club. If we have any students that qualify, the national convention will be held this summer in Nashville, TN. Taking students to compete at this convention will allow them the opportunity to place their skills against other students from schools across Kentucky. If we have a state qualifier, they will be competing against students from across the US.

Oral student presentations:

Betas attending the convention will have the opportunity to present or discuss their areas of competition to the Beta members during meetings and hopefully will have the opportunity to present in their classrooms as well.
