👋 This week, the spotlight is on you, Mrs. Courtney Trimble! 🌟

Mrs. Trimble is a preschool teacher in our Little Panther Academy. DSES Principal Jennifer Ward explained the reasoning behind Mrs. Trimble's week in the limelight. "Mrs. Trimble is always the first one here and the last one to go home each day, ensuring she is ready to deliver the best quality education for her littles every single day," she said. "Mrs. Trimble is always smiling and her positive energy is contagious."

Assistant Principal Michael Davenport agrees. "Mrs. Trimble is consistently one of the first to arrive each day and one of the last to leave," he added. "Mrs. Trimble epitomizes what it means to be a great teacher—she is an amazing asset to DSES."

For Mrs. Trimble, her preschoolers are the highlight of her role as a teacher. "My favorite part of my job is to love on all the littles in my classroom and help foster their love for learning while making the best memories with the children and families of this community," she said. "Dawson Springs has been a great school to work with and I cannot wait to see this adventure carry on for years to come."

Mrs. Trimble is honored to be this week's featured Panther educator. "It makes me feel like I am making a difference in my students' lives—it reminds me of my 'why' as a teacher and to strive to be the best I can be."

Congratulations to you, Mrs. Trimble! We're proud you're on our Panther team.
