 - A. The Prichard Committee's Commonwealth Institute for Parent Leadership (CIPL) is looking for people who are passionate about supporting K-12 public school students. CIPL builds strong partnerships between families, schools, and communities to improve Kentucky's education outcomes. As a CIPL Fellow, you'll grow as a partner, co-creator, and decision maker in education. You'll build the skills and confidence to move from advocating just for your own child to making a difference for all children in your school, your community, and across Kentucky. You'll learn how schools and education systems work, connect with other families, and develop a project that helps all students succeed.

To Apply — Commonwealth Institute for Parent Leadership | Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence. For any questions, please contact Laura Beard at laura.beard@prichardcommittee.org.
