STUDENT OF THE MONTH

KOHEN YOUNG

PANTHER ACADEMY

Mrs. Steinhauer shared that since the very first day of school, Kohen has tried his absolute hardest. He always makes sure he is working hard, being respectful, and setting a good example. He will take his time completing assignments to ensure they are correct and neat. He is constantly checking in on friends and including them on the playground or any activities. An example is always set, for the hallway and classroom expectations, by Kohen as he will be the first to put up a quiet symbol and walk in the hall correctly. Kohen does an excellent job of modeling our school's guidelines for success.

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

MORNINGSIDE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Bo Brown is a 4th grade student at Morningside Elementary School. His ability to exemplify our school's Guidelines for Success is what has earned him the honor of Student of the Month from his teachers.

Be Respectful: Bo demonstrates respect each day through the way he treats others and his environment. He listens attentively when his teachers or classmates are speaking, showing that he values their ideas and opinions. He uses kind words, good manners, and shows appreciation for others' efforts, whether in group work or everyday interactions. He also respects school property by taking care of supplies, keeping his area clean, and following classroom expectations.

Be Responsible: Bo always comes to class prepared with his materials, listens carefully to directions, and makes sure his work is done neatly and on time. He takes care of classroom supplies, respects school rules, and can be counted on to do the right thing even when no one is watching. He also shows responsibility by helping his classmates when they need support and by staying focused on his learning without being distracted. His dependable attitude shows that he takes ownership of his actions and choices, making him a trustworthy and respected student.

Be Cooperative: Bo shows cooperation by working well with others and always being willing to contribute to group activities. He listens to his classmates' ideas, shares his own respectfully, and helps the team stay focused on the task at hand. Whether it is completing a project, playing a game, or solving a problem together, he demonstrates patience and a positive attitude that makes collaboration easier for everyone. He is quick to lend a hand when someone needs help and understands that success comes from working together. His cooperative spirit encourages teamwork and creates a positive classroom environment for everyone.

Be Your Best: Bo shows that he is his best by always putting forth maximum effort in everything he does. No matter the challenge, he approaches his work with determination and a positive attitude, striving to improve and learn from mistakes. He sets high expectations for himself and takes pride in reaching his goals, while also encouraging others to do their best. By staying focused, motivated, and committed, he demonstrates what it means to give your all and never settle for less than your personal best. His dedication and perseverance make him a strong role model for his classmates -

ADDILYNN THORN

Addilyn,

Congrats on being named TK
Stone Middle School's
Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

T.K. STONE MIDDLE SCHOOL

Addilynn is an eighth grader at TK Stone and serves as a leader in our building. She is a member of the 8th grade volleyball team and is an active member in Beta, Y-Club, Student Council, FCA, HOSA and the Academic Team. She is the elected KYA Youth President of the Senate for the 25-26 school year.

Above all this, Addilynn is known for her kindness and positive attitude. She loves TKS because of the school spirit. She enjoys reading and photography and is interested in one day becoming a Speech Language Pathologist. Addilynn's role model is her mother- who goes out of her way to help others.

Addilynn is a very sweet girl who is never a problem and is always down to help out when needed! Anytime you see her in the hall she always has a smile on her face! - Ms. Bradley

I could go on and on about Addilynn. She is beautiful inside and out! She does her best every day on every assignment. I hope she remembers me when she's famous! I count it a privilege to have been her teacher. It's a joy to still see her at FCA each week. -Mrs. Kast

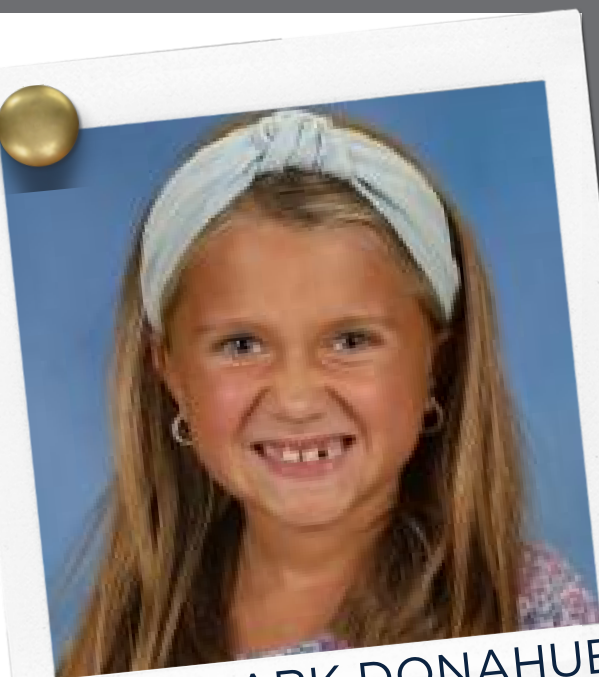

Addilynn Thorn is an outstanding student who truly embodies what it means to be a Panther. She consistently pursues excellence in all that she does, both in the classroom and in her extracurricular activities. As a dedicated volleyball player and active member of several clubs, Addilynn shows leadership, teamwork, and a commitment to making our school community stronger. She is a role model for her peers and a joy to have in our school. - Mr. Appelman

HELMWOOD HEIGHTS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

"I am absolutely thrilled to celebrate (Livy Clark) as Helmwood Heights Elementary School's Student of the Month! This honor recognizes not only your academic excellence but also the way you uplift those around you.

You are a natural leader, someone your classmates look to for guidance, encouragement, and example. What makes your leadership so special is that it's rooted in kindness. You treat everyone with respect and compassion, making our classroom a welcoming and positive place to learn.

Your intelligence shines in every lesson, but what truly sets you apart is your drive to be the best version of yourself. You approach challenges with determination, and your dedication motivates others to push themselves as well. Your effort, persistence, and love of learning are truly inspiring.

Beyond academics, you embody the spirit of our school. Your enthusiasm, positive attitude, and commitment to doing what's right remind everyone what it means to be part of the Helmwood Heights family.

I am so proud of you for earning this recognition. Keep reaching high and sharing your gifts with the world, you are destined to accomplish amazing things!

Congratulations again on this well deserved honor.

Sincerely,
Ms. Whitmer
4th Grade Teacher"
