

JAG

Mallory Cooper was selected as the State Vice President of Career Development. Only 10 students selected across the state out of 8,000 JAG students.

She will attend the National State Leadership Academy in December in Washington, DC.