Celebrations: On November 6, 2025, the Unified Bocce Tournament took place at Town and Country, bringing together enthusiastic participants for a day filled with camaraderie, teamwork, and fun. The event highlighted the spirit of inclusion and community, allowing participants to engage in friendly competition while building connections. Laughter, cheers, and supportive teamwork were abundant throughout the day, making the tournament a tremendous success. We celebrate the energy, sportsmanship, and joy that each participant contributed, and we look forward to continuing this exciting tradition in the future!
