Beta Club Fundraisers — Short Descriptions for Board Approval

Elf on a Shelf (December)

Students or staff pay to have a teacher's room "Elfed" with fun, harmless holiday-themed pranks or decorations to raise money for Beta service projects.

Cocoa & Cookie Sales (January)

Beta Club sells hot cocoa and cookies after lunch as a warm winter fundraiser to support service and leadership activities.

Murder Mystery Dinner Theater (February)

An interactive dinner event where Beta members perform a murder mystery show, and guests purchase tickets to enjoy dinner while solving the case.

Easter Egg Sales / Egg My Yard (April)

Families purchase candy-filled plastic eggs that Beta members hide in their yards the night before Easter.

Jail-a-Thon

Community members pay to issue humorous "arrest warrants" for friends or family during a public event. Those "arrested" raise bail money to be released, with all proceeds supporting Beta.

Gift Wrapping

Beta members offer holiday gift-wrapping services for donations. Wrapping paper and supplies may be donated to reduce costs.

Spirit Nights at Local Restaurants

Local restaurants host Beta-themed nights and donate a percentage of sales to Beta Club when customers mention ACS Beta.

Car Wash

Beta members host a car wash where donations support club events, service projects, and leadership opportunities.

Boston Butt Sales

Beta sells smoked Boston butts (partnering with a local BBQ vendor) as a high-demand community fundraiser.

Candy Sales

Students sell individually wrapped candies, chocolates, or specialty treats to raise funds for club activities.

Beauty Pageant

Beta hosts a community beauty pageant with entry fees, ticket sales, and optional donation categories.

Pie in the Face

Students purchase votes for a staff member to receive a pie in the face. The individual with the most votes at the end of the fundraiser gets pied.

Homecoming Dance

Beta plans and hosts the school's Homecoming dance, raising funds through ticket sales and concessions.

Nothing Bundt Cake Sales

Pre-order fundraiser where students sell personal-sized or full-size Bundt cakes, with a percentage of proceeds directed to Beta.

Chili Cookoff

Community members enter their chili into the competition for a fee. Attendees buy tasting tickets and vote for their favorite.

Concessions at Musical

Beta operates the concession stand during school musicals or performances to raise money during intermission.

Movie Night

Beta hosts a family-friendly movie night at school. Tickets and concessions are sold to support club initiatives.

Game/Trivia Night

A fun evening event where teams pay to enter trivia or board game competitions, with prizes awarded to winners.

Flamingos in Yard

A "flocking" fundraiser where people pay to have a flock of plastic flamingos placed in someone's yard as a surprise. Recipients can pay to move the flock to another house.

Flower Sales

Selling seasonal flowers (e.g., poinsettias, mums, or spring bouquets) as a pre-order fundraiser.
