

National Board Certification—offered by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS)—is a voluntary, performance-based certification that recognizes accomplished teaching. Candidates demonstrate advanced content knowledge, instructional expertise, and impact on student learning through a rigorous, multi-component assessment process completed over time.

🎉 Congratulations to Rhonda Rudd and Lindsey Stamm on earning National Board Certification, and to Kim Valerio on her successful renewal (Maintenance of Certification). Your dedication reflects a deep commitment to professional excellence and student success.

District milestone: With these accomplishments, Menifee County Schools is proud to have five National Board Certified Teachers: Rhonda Rudd, Lindsey Stamm, Kim Valerio, Tina O’Hair, and Jodi Blackburn.
