MORNINGSIDE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Edlin: Ace is the kind of student every teacher loves to have in the classroom. He sets a great example for his classmates and is always the student and friend anyone could rely on. Just in the time I have had with him I have seen him get more comfortable with being able to be himself and his confidence in speaking aloud and answering questions has grown tremendously. He is not afraid to be wrong, but most importantly knows when to ask questions. Ace deserves all the recognition.

Dunlapp: Ace is a quiet leader among his peers. He is someone who does what is expected of him without having to be reminded and leads by example. I've watched him this year gain so much confidence in himself in class by being more willing to answer questions and help others along the way. His peers are also noticing that confidence and look up to him as well.

Hindle:

Ace is a wonderful role model for his peers. He is always looking to do the right thing and encourages others around him to do the same. He truly embodies our guidelines for success everyday. He has grown so much this year in confidence and leadership. He stands up for others and is always kind to everyone around him. He is absolutely deserving of this award.

Mac:

Ace is a model student. He is dedicated, inquisitive, and well loved by his peers. Ace strives for success daily and is not satisfied with the bare minimum. He also seeks to help others when he can, contributing to a culture of learning and cooperation in the classroom. Ace truly demonstrates excellence in action.

Her enthusiasm for school and learning is truly infectious, and she has proudly demonstrated Panther Pride throughout her time at EHS.*

Areesha Jahan is an excellent example of what a panther should be. She is an active member of the Drama Club and recently stole the show in The Greatest Christmas Pageant Ever. She also represents T.K. Stone on our Academic Team. She is a Regional qualifier in Arts & Humanities and Social Studies Written Assessment. She also enjoys playing the piano and singing.

Areesha loves TKS for all of the opportunities and how friendly the people are. She is looking forward to attending EHS and is excited about the variety of classes that are offered there. She is interested in a career in the medical field, probably as a cardiologist. She is currently leaning toward attending the University of Louisville.

Areesha's role models are her parents because they have worked really hard to get where they are. They are a great example of hard work and success.

Areesha consistently shows kindness to her peers and respect for everyone around her. What truly sets Areesha apart is her unmatched hunger for knowledge—she asks thoughtful questions, seeks to understand why things work, and never settles for surface-level answers. Her curiosity, work ethic, and positive attitude make my classroom a better place every day! - Mr. Tefft

I truly appreciate Areesha's positive attitude toward life and learning. Each day, she came to our 6th grade ELA class ready to learn and willing to give her very best. ### HELMWOOD HEIGHTS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Ava has been such a bright light to have in class. She is organized, inquisitive, and always willing to help others. Ava is willing to take on any challenge with a smile and will always persevere. I have been so blessed to be a part of her learning journey! She has big things waiting for her in middle school.

Mrs. Thompson

I am so excited for Ava to be recognized as student of the month! I have had the privilege of coaching her at Helmwood for 2 years in elementary volleyball. She has consistently shown what it means to be a dedicated student and athlete. Ava works incredibly hard and always gives her best effort. Beyond her work ethic, Ava leads by example, being a good teammate and uplifting other players. She is the first one willing to work with another player who may have never played before. She encourages and gives advice to them at practice. Her commitment, sportsmanship and overall character truly stand out. I am so proud of Ava and cannot wait to see how she continues to grow academically and athletically.

Katelyn Osman

Ava leads by example. She walks into the room, gets her things and is always ready to learn. She is always so attentive in class, she follows directions the first time they are given. She approaches each day with a smile and she is truly a pleasure to teach.

Mrs. Vickie Shearer

Ava was a quiet leader with a big impact in my class last year and is so deserving of being recognized as Student of the Month. Other students looked up to her for guidance because she is respectful, responsible, and always willing to help. She often assisted classmates without being asked, showing kindness and patience as others were trying to understand their work. What makes her especially special is that she does all this with humble confidence. She doesn't seek attention or praise, but her pride in doing her best shines through in her actions every day. Her strong character, work ethic, and caring attitude made my classroom a better, bright place! She is the kind of student who makes teaching rewarding! I am so proud of Ava! Her future is bright, and I know she will continue to do wonderful things!
