Your insurance premium may be subject to a license fee or tax imposed by your local government. The amount of the fee or tax is determined by the local government where the insured risk is located. The tax and any collection fee, if included in the charges to you will be shown on all future renewal certificates or premium billings for your policy. If you believe that you have been erroneously charged or have been overcharged the tax, you may contact us for information on how to request a refund or credit for the tax paid.
