Kentucky High School Speech League (KHSSL) State Tournament

Twenty-three students from South Oldham High School's Speech Team competed at the Kentucky High School Speech League (KHSSL) State Tournament at Murray State University. The team competed against 36 schools and was named State Champion Runner-up, a school record. The team sent 42 entries - 15 entries were named as state finalists and nine entries were named as semifinalists. The team is coached by Chase McCoy and co-coached by Bryan Jackson.

Four students were named state champions in their events.

Caroline Beavers: Prose

Aubrey Goins and McKenna Edmonston: Improv Duo

Cassidy Stocker: Oratory
Cassidy Stocker: Program Interpretation

Four students were named state runner-up in three categories.

Ben Osborne: Dramatic Interpretation
Caroline Beavers and Aubrey Goins: Duo Interpretation
Catherine Daisey: Impromptu Speaking

And congratulations to the team for achieving the title of State Runner-up.
