Re: Curriculum Associates, Inc.: IReady Assessment & MyPath

The attached is a subscription renewal for the IReady assessment platform and MyPath individualized instructional platform that provides personalized instruction based on benchmark assessment data in fall, winter, and spring. This system is on the KDE approved universal screener for reading that is aligned to SB 9. We will continue to use this in K-8 for reading and math to streamline our technology assessment systems along with supporting coherence of student academic progress monitoring tools across all elementary schools. The cost of the assessment individualized instruction platform will be $375,554.00. This renewal has been approved by Dinsmore & Shohl, Inc. The funding will come from the curriculum, instruction, and assessment budget.
