For Anti-Bullying Awareness Month, we had great participation. Students signed a pledge, and many students submitted a poster for the poster contest. The Spooky Dance was moved to the gym, which was a hit. This gave the students more space, and it made supervision much easier. Twenty-six new students were inducted at the Beta Club Induction Ceremony. West Hardin has a new school therapy dog, Wilbur, and he is already helping students with issues, such as anxiety and panic attacks.

Student Achievement: iReady scores were discussed in comparison to the other middle schools in the district.
