PAC Spotlight

The July PAC Spotlight shines on North Hardin High School's Rayson Chitwood

What do you want to do when you grow up?

I want to do what I love professionally and perform on Broadway with other great people.

What have you seen at The PAC?

Great people who shaped me into who I am today and great things that made me realize my passion.

What have you participated in at The PAC?

I have participated in Footloose and Shrek for YTHC.

How have you benefitted from The PAC?

I have found a safe place to be able to fully express myself through theatre.

Why should the PAC be important to others?

Because it can help others discover themselves in many ways.
