

Information Technology Director Rob Catron

Topic

Sports Report

Sports Report

Sport

Winter/Spring Esports

Championship
Update/Review

We conducted out inperson rounds on Thursday, May 23, once again at the Cornerstone on the Campus of the University of Kentucky. Madden NFL 26 saw Low Cut (Armani James) from Central High repeating his Fall '25 title; Mario Kart 8 Deluxe ended with Shelby County's Blue Shelbys winning - their 5th season in a row; Bowling Green's Purple Reign took the Rocket League Title; Great Crossing's Great Inking Warhawks took their first Splatoon 3 title; Campbellsville's Cville SF6 Purple one their first championship playing Street Fighter 6, with the Lafayette LHS Generals SSB 1 taking the title in Super Smash Bros. Ultimate

Fiscal and Budget
Issues and Review
(attendance, etc.)

Attendance to the even was at an all time high, coming in shy of 300 tickets issued.

Noteworthy Changes / Anticipates Changes

PlayVS is going back to a paid model for the the 2026-27 school year. What is different from the past is that it is a flat rate platform fee which is $495/$595 per school year, with unlimited teams and participants per school.