Fundraising Activities and Details:

- SMILE T-shirt sales-sell t-shirts to students and staff and students. Throughout the year, we use the profit to provide resources for staff and students in need.
- SMILE memorabilia sales-sell bracelets, stickers, hats, fidgets and other items to students and staff. The sales provide students and staff with resources when in need.
- Hat day/pajama day-students and staff wear hats/pajamas for $1. These sales provide resources for students and staff in need.
- Teacher penny wars/turkey feathers/etc-Students bring in money to help their teacher win the penny war/contest. The teacher with the most money wins and receives a donut party, etc. All sales proceeds go to FCCLA and SMILE club.
- Food sales/Candy/Food trucks-Students who participate will sell items to provide monetary support for student competitions and events.
- Mental Health Awareness Community Event-FCCLA/SMILE club students want to develop a Mental Health Awareness night/community walk. Through this event, community members and students will learn best practices regarding mental health as well as assist in providing resources for those in need. Through this event, food trucks, t-shirts, and other items might be available to students and community members to raise awareness and funding for local mental health initiatives.
