

Associate Commissioner Butch Cope

Topic

Attendance on Behalf of KHSAA

Attendance for KHSAA

Meeting_Session Attended

KHSAA HYPE Student Leadership Conferences

Takeaways to help
Board and Staff

Over 600 students participated in the recent HYPE Student Leadership Conferences that were held August 31 and September 1 at the Central Bank Center in Lexington.

General Commentary

KHSAA staff, along with the Student Advisory Committee conducted the 26th Annual HYPE Student Leadership Conferences. The students managed the event along with breakout sessions from Omari Pearson (Brain Mapping and Future Planning), Adventure Serve (Team Building and Leadership Exercises), Deb Hult (Relational Leadership Building) and a keynote presentation from Westley Morris (Keep Pedaling).

The Association provides this opportunity at no cost to the membership. Corporate Partners involved in support this event along with the KHSAA include, the Kentucky High School Coaches Association, Musco Sports Lighting and the NFHS Foundation.

This year's KHSAA Student Advisory Committee includes: Marcellus Ashford (Bryan Station), Landton Atcher (Elizabethtown), Corran Blair (Beechwood), Madelyn Boling (Paducah Tilghman), Kate Borders (Tates Creek), Mason Clements (McCracken County), Kinly Cooper (Pendleton County), Cam Drake (Bethlehem), Ella Dulaney (Frederick Douglass), Izzy Fisk (Scott), Colleen Harley (Mercy), Jackson Kincaid (George Rogers Clark), Sawyer Maggard (West Carter), Mya Moore (Elizabethtown), Triniti-Ann Sneed (Sacred Heart Academy), and Reagan Workman (Mason County).