

SEPTEMBER

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

ARIYA FAULKNER

Ariya,

Congrats on being named
Panther Academy's Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

PANTHER ACADEMY

Ms. Diniz nominated Ariya Faulkner as Panther Academy's September Student of the Month.

Ms. Diniz shared this:

I am so proud to nominate Ariya for student of the month! She consistently demonstrates the qualities of an outstanding student and role model. She shows respect to her teachers and classmates, takes responsibility for her actions and belongings, and treats everyone with kindness and compassion.

She is always willing to help others and looks for opportunities to be a good friend and classmate. Her positive attitude, helpful nature, and willingness to do her best make her a wonderful example for others to follow.

She comes to school ready to learn, participate, and grow each day, and she helps make our classroom a happier and more caring place. Her smile always brightens my day :)

Ariya truly represents what it means to be respectful, responsible, and kind.

Mrs. Carla Kuhn, Principal

SEPTEMBER

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

LUCY GRUNNET

Lucy,

Congrats on being named
Morningside Elementary's
Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

MORNINGSIDE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Lucy is a girl who is always walking around with a smile on her face. She leads her classmates by always setting a good example and doing what is right even when no one is watching -Mrs. Dunlapp

Lucy is a hard-working, kind, and dependable student who is always looking for ways to help her teachers and classmates. She comes to school with a positive outlook, is always ready to take on whatever comes her way, and has a wonderful sense of humor that never fails to make those around her laugh! -Ms. Edlin

Lucy is always prepared for anything we are doing in class. She listens and follows directions quickly and responsibly. She is an active learner and is always willing to read, answer questions or engage in group discussions! -Mrs. Shelley

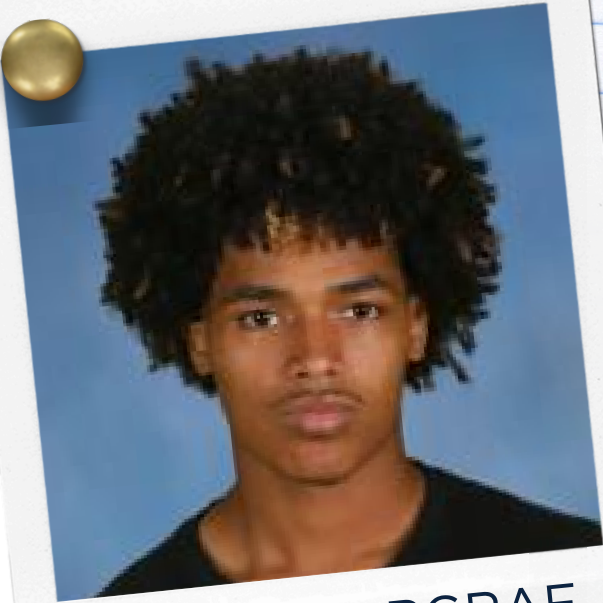

Lucy is a student that embodies the guidelines for success. She is always looking for an opportunity to help others and leads by example. She is an active participant in class and always works well with others in her group! -Ms. Hindle

Mrs. Heather Goodman, Principal

SEPTEMBER

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

CURTIS MARGRAF

ELIZABETHTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Curtis Margraf is our EHS September Student of the Month. He is the son of Sara Jones. Curtis is an all around athlete and a great student. He has played 2 years of Soccer, 4 years in track, 2 years in football, and 1 year in basketball. His pathway at the high school is Business. Curtis would like to run track at University of Louisville and become a Lawyer. His favorite memory is when he broke the school record his 10th grade year for the 100 meter dash.

Coach Shearer: Curtis is just a peer mentor for me, but he is doing a great job. He is also doing a great job of working his way into a role on the soccer team that will be very important to any success the team has.

Mr. Thompson: Curtis is an exceptional multi-sport student-athlete at Elizabethtown High School. Having taught him in World History, I always admired his positive attitude and relentless work ethic. He has consistently exemplified Panther Pride during his time at EHS, making him truly deserving of this recognition.

Mr. Josh Henderson, Principal

Curtis,

Congrats on being named
Elizabethtown High School's
Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

SEPTEMBER

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

EMERSYN LOOKABILL

Emerson,

Congrats on being named TK
Stone Middle School's
Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

T.K. STONE MIDDLE SCHOOL

Emersyn Lookabill is an excellent example of what a T.K. Stone Panther should be. She is kind, she is an excellent student, and she is an active member of student council, SoS, theatre, choir, and yearbook.

In her free time, Emmy enjoys reading, bible study, and watching tv. She also enjoys community service projects, because it is encouraging to help people and see the smiles on their faces when she is able to give back to the community.

Emmy enjoys TKS because of the school spirit and the positive student-staff relationships. She loves the sense of community. She is looking forward to attending EHS because she will be with her sister and she has heard great things about the teachers, the community service opportunities and the school spirit.

Emmy would love to be a physical therapist. She would love to go to Panther College. Her role model is Mr. Appelman because he is a great teacher and makes great connections with students. He makes math fun and helps students understand.

Em is always smiling and can brighten a room. She is courteous to her classmates and respectful to teachers. -Mr. Fisher

Congratulations to Emmy Lookabill for being selected as Student of the Month! Emmy is a hardworking, kind, and dedicated student who consistently demonstrates a positive attitude and sets a great example for her classmates. We are proud of all her accomplishments and the effort she puts into everything she does! -Mr. Appelman

Emmy is a very intelligent student that never fails to participate in class discussions and always puts her full effort towards her assignments. -Ms. Bradley

Emmy is a hard worker. She has grown so much vocally since last year and is not afraid to tackle new things. -Ms. Spalding

Mrs. Hope Janes, Principal

SEPTEMBER

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

GIA MARCHIONY

Gia,

Congrats on being named
Helmwood Height Elementary
School's Student of the Month!

#PantherPride

HELMWOOD HEIGHTS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Gia is an excellent choice for Student of the Month! She consistently comes to class ready to learn and can always be counted on to stay focused and on task. Gia treats her classmates and teachers with kindness and respect, and she is always willing to encourage and support those around her. She leads by example through her positive attitude, strong work ethic, and thoughtful actions. Gia helps make our classroom a welcoming and supportive place, and I am so proud to recognize her as our Student of the Month! - Mrs. Osman 5th grade teacher

I've had the privilege of being Gia's art teacher for the last five years, and what a privilege it has been to watch her grow! Gia is such a kind and caring student. She is patient, resilient, hardworking, and always goes above and beyond in everything that is asked of her. She brings a positive spirit to the art room and everywhere she goes, leads by example, and puts her very best into everything she does. I am so proud of Gia and cannot think of a more deserving Student of the Month! - Mrs. Sara Ingram

I was so very fortunate to be Gia's homeroom and ELA teacher last year. Every day with Gia was an amazing day! From the moment she enters the room in the morning, she radiates joy. Her smile is something that I look forward to every day! Her sweet demeanor and enthusiasm for learning is absolutely contagious. It is not uncommon to see her standing up for what is right or lending a hand to anyone who is struggling. She is determined and uses integrity in her schoolwork, on the soccer field, and in all her life choices. Gia is an exceptional student! Her work shows her to be a creative and perceptive thinker. She takes pride in her work, and it is obvious. She checks all the boxes in meeting Helmwood's guidelines for success. She embodies the role of student, friend, and role model. Gia is the perfect candidate for student of the month, and I am so proud of her. — Mrs. Kremzar

I haven't known Gia long, but she already stands out as a leader! She is always willing to help and is an eager learner! Mrs. Strader.

Mr. Aaron Howell, Principal

