Meeting_Session Attended	NFHS Section III Meeting - September - Chattanooga
Takeaways to help Board and Staff	This meeting is held in early September and Kentucky is an invited state because of its strong similarity to the schools in section 3. This section includes North and South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee. While section 2 offers an organized opportunity for participation, section three states are much more similar in issues they face. number one issue facing every state at this meeting is transfers, and for the most part, legislation around their transfer rule. In many cases, their schools had steadfastly refused to modernize their transfer restrictions, and in many of these states, they were very focused on school choice and even on vouchers in some form. This places their state association in conflict with the desires of their legislature. This meeting is also held earlier in the year than the section 2 meeting, which allows for the association here to be a little bit ahead of the curve in terms of upcoming issues
General Commentary	This is a really good meeting with very minimal cost to the association and should be continued in the future if the states in section three are willing to have our as
