4. Approval of Minutes

5. Financial Report

Discussion:

The council discussed the current SBDM budget. At this time, there are no major needs to use funds for. At this time, the budget has $20,212.20 remaining.

6. Policy Review

Discussion:

The council discussed the school committee policy and will work with the leadership team to make sure all needs are met through committees.

7. CSIP (30/60/90 Day) Review

Discussion:

The council discussed the CSIP and discussed how professional development opportunities have been implemented into the classroom to help meet the goals established. Mr. Fugate discussed the variety of KAGAN structures and cooperative learning he has seen taking place. He said that overall, the student engagement is increasing, but there are a few areas the teachers are more reluctant and will need some extra support to become more comfortable using them. He said the leadership team is working to create a process for teachers to be able to model for and share ideas to help.

8. Academic Report

Discussion:

8.1. Fall MAP Testing

Discussion:

MAP results were presented to the council. Overall, although we have novice numbers in the 20%s, we are still starting off at a better place than last school year when the novice was in the 30%s. Through observations, students are much more involed with their learning and are becoming self aware through using goal setting sheets.

9. Informational items

Discussion:

The state audit is happening this week.

KSA scores will be made availabe to the public mid- October

PBIS rewards app is live. So far, positve feedback from students and staff.
