Christy Rogers and husband Jeremy Rogers are coming to the council with a concern over taking a math and english class at RCSHS. Mrs. Rogers sent an email to the council prior to this meeting stating their concerns. The family is requesting that since he has completed all requirements and should not have to take this english class his senior year.

2. Financial Reports

a. Review of SEEK/Activity Funds

Mrs. Staggs discussed the budget that all members have access to in their portals. She specifically discussed the "class of 2026" budgets and how not all financial reports have come through.

b. ESS & Homeless Funds

Mrs. Staggs stated that Cheryl Plank has no intention of coming back in the fall for tutoring. She was concerned that our HS students will suffer. Mrs. Staggs stated that some of these funds could be used to pay for afterschool tutoring (ELA teachers).

3. Committee Reports

a. Budget Committee Report

Motion Passed: passed with a motion by Lori Staggs and the consensus of the council. }

Mrs. Staggs stated that the budget committee is comprised from one faculty member from each department to represent the school as a whole. The budget committee created a document that prioritizes the needs of the faculty based on their feedback. Mrs. Staggs stated that the spreadsheet the budget committee created is attached for all to view.

All items that are highlighted in green PASSED.

Wayground DID NOT PASS.

Mrs. Staggs stated that any and all money left over would be put into administrative funds. Council voted in favor.

4. Bylaw or Policy Review/Adoption

Mrs. Staggs stated to the Rogers situation and stated that there is no written document about having a math and english every single year. Mrs. Staggs also stated that this decision should not be taken lightly and that it was a council decision.

Mr. Mckinney noted that he would feel more comfortable is to defer to July meeting and to the curriculum committee to receive more guidance on the procedure.
