3. Review of Tentative Agenda for September 19 Regular Meeting

Director of Pupil Personnel Brent Lovett presented his attendance and safety report since he will not be at the regular meeting September 19th. Lovett reported that August attendance was extremely high with 96.11% attendance district wide. He also reported numbers for September 12th, which was high attendance day statewide. For his safety report, Lovett said new window coverings have been installed on new doors at Benton and Central Elementaries. He also expects walk throughs at each school before Fall Break.

Instructional Supervisor Jackie Reid presented STAR Data since she will not be at the Regular Board Meeting. This data is a starting point for teachers to see which standards students have mastered in comparison to similar-aged peers. The results help drive instruction and reflect on student growth.
