B. Emergency Teaching Certification

Margaret Perry Margaret Perry is seeking emergency certification due to her GPA in her undergraduate work not allowing her to be fully admitted to the University of the Cumberland. Currently, she is conditionally admitted and taking classes (with one class she is enrolled this fall - 8 week class). After she completes that class, she will be full admitted into the University of the Cumberland's Masters program for a teaching certificate. At that time, we will explore options to apply for a temporary provisional teaching certificate (Option6).

C. Emergency Teaching Certification

McKenzie Hyams McKenzie Hyams student taught for us at the Trigg County Middle School last year. She was dual enrolled in teaching program with content areas in Social Studies and English. She is currently teaching Social Studies to which she has completed her Bachelor Degree in education and passed the Praxis test. Murray State is holding her teaching certificate until she passes the English test during the month of September. Once that is passed, Murray State will release her teaching certificate.
