Chronic Absenteeism Discussion

Trying new initiatives to help. Discussed the importance of communication with parents and making sure students feel they are valued.

The district is also putting together some things to help support - signage and a toolkit.

Suggestions were made from members:

Having a point person for students to connect with.

Sending notes home to kids who have missed a lot.

Having office staff personally call guardians when it's a NCNS.

Get Mr. C involved if necessary. Finding out more about why they are missing.

Encourage kids to get here a little early to have time to socialize.

Point out classroom attendance, awards for good attendance, recognition to those who reach our goal.

Perfect attendance recognized.

Recognize rather than incentivize.

Educating parents.

New Lunch tables are coming. Should be here around Spring Break. Should help a little with lunchtime volume.
