2. Action Items

a. Budget

Motion Passed: approve budget allocations as presented passed with a motion by Mrs. Inna Pylyayevai and a second by Jessica Humbert and the consensus of the council.

There are two vacant positions, so funding for the certified substitute teachers should not be allocated to SBDM budget, and Mr. Barwell will have a conversation with central office.

b. Policy Review

I. Grading Policy

Today marks the First Read of the Grading Policy and aspects of the policy that are essential were discussed, along with review of the current policy, a compilation of suggested considerations developed in meetings among teachers that were shared with Mr. Barwell, along with a revised draft of the Grading Policy that merges the two documents.

Conversation was held around how to ensure the policy is equitable. Council members discussed aspects of the proposed procedures that can be improved upon so that there is consistent implementation of the policy across each grade level. Within the google doc that will be shared with the council, members are invited to use different colored highlighters to inform the second reading.

Mr. Barwell will share the documents with council members to review and edit prior to the second reading which will occur during the next SBDM meeting in June.

3. Information Items

a. Principal Announcement

Tim Mosley has been selected as the next Principal.

b. SBDM Voting updates

One teacher was elected to SBDM for next school year, and the vote will continue tomorrow because a majority of teachers did not remain at the end of the staff meeting today.

c. YSC Board Report

Members reviewed the YSC board report presented for April.

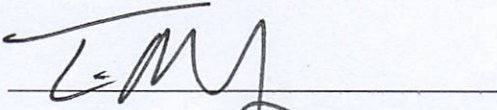

d. CSIP

Mr. Barwell will share an updated version of the CSIP.

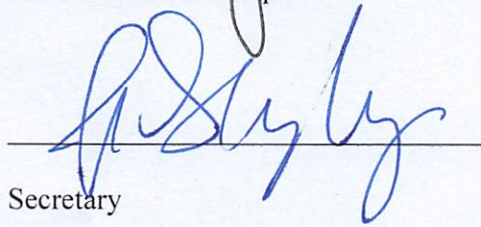

4. Adjournment
